Former Congressman David E. Bonior is the founder and Chairman of American Rights at Work (ARAW), a national organization dedicated to promoting the rights of workers to form unions and bargain collectively.

Bonior previously served in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1976 to 2002, representing a district in Michigan. From 1991 to 2002, he served as House Democratic Whip. In 2008, he managed John Edwards’ presidential campaign and served on President-elect Obama’s transitional economic advisory board. He earned a BA in Political Science from the University of Iowa and has taught Labor Studies at Wayne State University.

If you are an individual with a disability and require an accommodation to attend, please call 319-335-4144 in advance of the program.
