

BUILDING BRIDGES FOR WORKER JUSTICE

FEB 18, 2012
9AM – 3PM

IN IOWA'S GROWING
LOW-WAGE ECONOMY

A one-day conference designed to bring together Iowa immigrant rights advocates, labor union activists, faith leaders, and community service providers to discuss the challenges workers are facing in our growing low-wage economy, review basic workplace legal protections, and discuss ways our communities can promote justice for all Iowa workers.

University of Iowa campus
2520-D University Capitol Centre
(2nd floor Old Capitol Mall)

Sessions will include:

- Case studies of wage theft and community responses in Iowa
- Immigrant rights and labor rights: toolkits for defending workers
- Building coalitions for worker justice

9:15-10:30AM
