Collective Bargaining Class

Sponsored by the Lee County Labor Council, AFL-CIO
with support from the Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO
Presented by the Labor Center, the University of Iowa

Two-day class intended for union bargaining teams, union leaders, staff, and active members. Topics will include:

- Preparing for Bargaining: Conducting surveys, gathering research, and educating members
- Collective Bargaining Law: Legal basis for bargaining rights, bargaining process and what happens at impasse
- Bargaining Basics: Drafting and presenting proposals, costing proposals, roles of bargaining committee members, etc.
- Bargaining Benefits: Health insurance and pension/retirement plans
- Collective Action: What can we do at the table and in the community to put pressure on the employer?

WHEN: February 19-20, 2015 (Thursday-Friday)
TIME: 9:00 am – 3:00 pm both days
LOCATION: Keokuk Labor Temple
301 Blondeau Street, Keokuk

Please register for the class before Feb. 16 by calling 319-524-9861
Lunch provided by the Lee County Labor Council and the Fraternal Council