Register today for a Quad City Federation of Labor class, presented by the University of Iowa Labor Center

Labor and Immigration:
Building Coalitions for Worker Justice

A one-day, interactive program designed for Quad Cities-area union members, and members of local faith and community organizations. Topics will include:

- Immigration and unions in U.S. history
- Today’s global economy and its effect on immigration
- What’s going on in Arizona and Alabama? State-level struggles over immigration policy
- Wage theft, misclassification, and community coalitions to restore workers’ rights

Date: Monday, November 14

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Place: UFCW 431 Hall In Davenport
(1401 West Third Street)

For more information or to register, contact: quadcityfed@netexpress.net or 309-738-3196

Supported by funding from the Iowa Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO